ALIBI FOR PETER YERKINS.

TESTIMONY IN KATE TAYLOR MURDER CASE ALL IN.

The Last Witness Swears That Yerkins Was Six Miles Away When Taylor's Body Was Cut Up-Mrs. Taylor Tells of Ill Treatment by Her Husband.

MONTICELLO, N. Y., May 25 - The last witness in the second trial of Mrs. Kate Taylor for the murder of her husband was harles Unkenbetty, who swore that Peter Yerkins was boarding at tis house at the time Lafe Taylor was killed, and on the night of the murder Yerkins played dominces with him and his wife until 9 o'clock and that when he retired he left Yerkins in the kitchen. He called Yerkins at 5 o'clock the ollowing morning and he was in his room. The Unkenbetty place is six m.les from the Taylor place. If Peter Yerkins was at the Taylor house and assisted in cutting up and disposing of the body of Taylor, as testified to by the DeKay girl, he was compelled to steal out from the Unkenbetty house, cover the six miles and return before 5 o'clock in the morning.

In Mrs. Taylor's direct examination to-day she denied everything in relation to Peter Yerkins's connection with the crime.

she denied everything in relation to Peter Yerkins's connection with the crime.

Q. Did Yerkins ever say anything to you about putting Lafe Taylor out of the way?

A. No, sir, he did not.

Q. Did he, in the presence of your daughter. Ida May DeKay, or at any other time, tell you he would furnish the medicine with which to kill your husband and give you the Benson farm if you would do the deed and do it in good shape, as Ida May has sworn? A. No, sir, he never did.

Q. Did you go out on the stoop and swing a lantern after Taylor was shot on Jan. 26, and did Yerkins come into the house in response to the signal? A. No, sir, I did not go on the stoop. Ida was the only one who went out, and there was no lighted lantern.

Q. Did you see Yerkins at any time on that night? A. No, I saw him two weeks after when I went to his place to get some micropy to pay off a mortgage on my house and Ida was with me.

Q. Did you shoot Lafe Taylor by accident? A. Yes, sir. He grabbed the revolver which I had in my hand and it was discharged in the tussle. The ball struck him somewhere in the head, and he fell to the floor. I did not intend to shoot him

On cross-examination by District Attorney Anderson Mrs Taylor evaded all direct questions, saying that she could not remember and didn't know.

Q. If the shooting of Taylor was an accident, why did you cut off his head and cut up member and didn't know.

Q. If the shooting of Taylor was an accident, why did you cut off his head and cut up the body and burn it; why didn't you go not tell some of the neighbors? A Oh, I must have been crazy. I was terribly frightned and didn't know what I was doing.

Q. Did you confess to Sheriff Rice that you cut up Taylor's body and burned it so completely that there wasn't a piece as large at. Is finger left? A. Oh, I don't know; I can't remember. I have had so much trouble that I can't remember.

Mrs. Taylor was asked to tell the jury

Mrs. Taylor was asked to tell the jury of some of the ill treatment she had received at the hands of her husband. She said:

said:

I have always been ill-treated by him. Idid not know he drank when I married him. The first time he came home drunk he demanded money of me. I would not give it to him. He pounded me and choked me until I gave him $2, all the money I had, and that I had earned doing washing. After that he was always drunk when he could get the money to buy whiskey. Whenever he came home drunk he would abuse me terribly, sometimes pulling my hair and kicking me. Once he blacked my eye, and on another occasion he cut my face. I wo different times he injured my leg by hitting me with a pail

The defence produced witnesses to sub-stantiate Mrs. Ta lor's testimony of ill treatment. At the opening of court to-morrow the defence will begin their summing up. It is expected that the case will go to the jury
